Students who receive the “DF” will be charged with hours attempted in the overall grade point average. See the Schedule of Classes for the exact date.

Troy Univ that learning equivalent to the college level can occur outside the formal structure of accredited colleges and universities. Policies and procedures have been established for the assessment of this learning based upon the “Principles of Good Practice in Assessing Experiential Learning” recommended by the Council for the Adult and Experiential Learning (CAEL). In addition, credit as recommended by the American Council on Education may be granted for learning acquired through military, industrial, or regionally accredited technical school training programs where the learning is applicable to the student’s degree program. Experiential Credit is considered non-traditional credit and will be posted only after the student has satisfactorily completed 12 semester hours of undergraduate credit with Troy University and has attained unconditional admission status.

Faculty members have the authority to grade student work and to assign grades; these grades are academic judgments based on academic content, course requirements, and student performance, as enumerated on the course syllabus provided by each faculty member. Faculty members render academic judgments when a student’s academic performance violates established standards or fails to meet stated expectations. Students may not appeal grades based on allegations concerning the competence of a faculty member, the fairness of examinations, the difficulty of a course, or other matters of a purely academic
