
Troy University offers students a variety of academic support services, including resources to assist students in areas such as

6. GENERAL INFORMATION

HOMER system, which documents program-level institutional

'96, the first softball team from the state of Alabama ever to do so. In 2018, Troy defeated a trio of nationally-ranked teams and

8· GENERAL INFORMATION

The Office of Sponsored Programs (OSP) is responsible for facilitating the activities of faculty, professional staff and students in seeking external support for research and creative projects. OSP is responsible for assuring that agency guidelines and University policies are followed. Sponsored Programs assists in identifying sources of external funding and assists faculty, professional staff and students in all aspects of securing grants, contracts, cooperative agreements, and other types of awards. OSP maintains fund-